

Prayer from Thoughts in Solitude

Susan Hulsman Bingham

$\text{♩} = 72$

S p My Lord God, I have no i - de - a where I am go - ing. I do not

A I do not

S see the road a - head of me. I can-not know for cer - tain where it will

A see a - head. I can - not know where

S end. Nor do I

A it will end. Nor do I know my -

T Nor do I know my - self, and the fact that I

S know my - self, do not know my -

A self, do not know my -

T think that I am fol - low - ing your will does not mean that I'm act - ual - ly do - - - ing

B

But I be -

15

S self, though I de - sire to please you! Let me

A self, though I de - sire to please you! Let me

T so! 3 Though I de - sire to please, and I hope I have that de -

B 3 lieve that the de-sire to please you does in fact please you.

19

S on - ly de - sire to please you.

A on - - - ly de - sire to please you.

T 8 sire in all that I am do - ing. Oh, let me nev - er do an - y - thing a - part from that de - sire.

B May I please you!

24

S And I know that if I do this, you will lead me by the right road, though I may know

A You will lead by the right road, though I may know

29

S no - thing a - bout it. There - fore will I trust you - al - ways.

A no - thing a - bout it. So I will trust you al -

32

S Yes, though I be lost as I may seem, I will not

A ways. Lost though I seem I will not

T 8 Though I may see to be lost and in the shadow of death, I will not fear,

3

37

S fear, for you are with me, and you will

A fear, for you are with me, and you will

T 8 for you are with me, with me, and I know you will

B 3 For you are ev-er with me, with me.

42

S nev - er leave, leave me to face my per - ils a - lone.

A nev - er leave, leave me to face my per - ils a - lone.

T 8 nev - er, nev - er leave me to face my per - ils a - lone.

B I will not face my per - ils a - lone.